- Mimbres Valley Learning Center houses an Extended University of Western New Mexico University, which offers programs and technology that make learning easily accessible to the residents of Deming and Luna County.
- Opened in September 2001, the highly successful center has already undergone an expansion.
- For more information on class schedules, Link to Western New Mexico University